Course

'Cambridge Examination' courses are dedicated to intensive practice of the skills and intensive study of the linguistic competences that are required for the First Certificate and Certificate of Advanced English Examinations. By the end of the 'Fast-Track' course, students know exactly what to expect in each paper and how to approach each section. The course includes:

- Development of examination techniques
- Study of past papers
- Intensive practice in Private Study Centre
- Individual tutorials
- Teachers include University of Cambridge examiners & writers
- Full mock examinations

Timetable

Lessons	Time
1 & 2	9.15 -10.45
3 & 4	11.05 -12.35
5 & 6	14.00 - 15.30

The morning programme provides the General English language base required for candidates undertaking the FCE and CAE examinations combining study of grammatical, lexical and phonological language systems with skills development appropriate to the examinations as well as to 'real life' needs.

The Cambridge afternoon programmes (FCE & CAE) provide the specialised examination training and practice for the skills and the language competence required by these examinations.

The afternoon programme provides preparation for all 5 papers: Reading, Writing, English in Use, Listening, Speaking including training and practice in:

- Reading & Listening Skills
- Application of Language Systems
- Vocabulary
- Grammar
- Spelling
- Punctuation
- Registered Mail Cohesion and Coherence
- Production of a range of text types
- Spoken Interaction

Richard Language College and Bournemouth

Richard Language College is a medium-sized school for adults situated on the south coast of England in a safe, high-class residential area. Bournemouth is a cosmopolitan, seaside resort where most people speak clear English. The college is accredited by the British Council and was the first English language school in Bournemouth to pass an inspection aimed at maintaining excellence in language schools across the whole of Europe. The inspection was carried out by EAQUALS (The European Association for Quality Language Services). The college specialises in short intensive programmes and enjoys a high reputation, developed over 70 years, for long courses. We are also the IELTS/TOEIC testing centre for the region. Richard Language College offers small classes, a good nationality mix and full social programme. Facilities include multi-media resources, free Internet access and cafeteria.

Accommodation

Accommodation will be with one of our experienced British host families. Staying with a host family gives the opportunity to practise what has been learned during the day and absorb English expressions, which only occur in the home or family. Accommodation will provide a single room with half board during the week and full board at the weekend.
